Standards for acceptance and participation in Saguaro Camp Cedarbrook are the same for everyone without regard to race, color, national origin or disability. A physical examination within the past 18 months is recommended for all campers. In order to maintain an effective camper/counselor ratio, campers are accepted only when we are assured of having adequate volunteer staff. When a camper is accepted, a packet of important information will be sent out. Registrations are processed in the order received.
